"community to the core"

All proceeds benefit the Make-a-Wish® Foundation of Wisconsin, which grants "the wishes of children with life-threatening medical conditions to enrich the human experience with hope, strength and joy."

Start Time: 8:30 (runners start first with walkers following)

Location: Apple Tree Connections (ATC)
5020 N Providence Ave
Appleton, WI 54913

Participants will meet on the playground at ATC and begin the race outside the playground gate. The flat route weaves through the neighborhood and around a pond. The finish line is back at ATC. Food and beverages to follow the race, along with medals for top finishers and door prizes from local businesses. Parking is available in the ATC parking lot, on Providence Ave, and streets off of Providence. This event is athlete and family friendly and suited for runners, walkers, adults, and families with children. Strollers and MP3 players are welcome; however, pets and bikes are not allowed.

Thank you to our Platinum, Gold, and Silver sponsors (as of 6/10/21)!
This race would not be possible without their generous donations and support!
